

TENNIS COURT

DRESS CODE

A strictly monitored dress code is observed on the tennis courts at the Royal South Yarra Lawn Tennis Club. Failure to adhere to the dress code will result in a player being asked to change or leave the courts.

GENTLEMEN PERMITTED ATTIRE:

Made-for-tennis shirt with sleeves, made-for-tennis shorts and made-for-tennis shoes with socks.

Whilst a predominantly white outfit is preferred, gentlemen may wear a coloured top without collar, and coloured shorts, provided the entire outfit is made-for-tennis.

LADIES PERMITTED ATTIRE:

Made-for-tennis dress or made-for-tennis top with skirt or shorts and made-for-tennis shoes with socks.

Whilst a predominantly white outfit is preferred, ladies may wear a coloured top without collar and/or sleeves with a coloured skirt or shorts, provided the entire outfit is made-for-tennis.

Leggings and compression clothing (including bicycle shorts and skins) may be worn on the tennis courts, but only under approved tennis attire.

Made-for-tennis track pants, track tops, jumpers and vests may be also worn on the courts.

The following dress is NOT permitted on the tennis courts

- Any clothing or footwear that is not made-for-tennis ✗
- Sleeveless shirts ✗
- Street clothes ✗
- Clothing with large logos, slogans, or messages ✗

- Any clothing or footwear that is not made-for-tennis ✗
- Singlet tops ✗
- Crop tops ✗
- Street clothes ✗
- Clothing with large logos, slogans, or messages ✗